

should be in place and they should be abided by?

SENATOR WITEK: I guess, in my naive and innocence, I did not realize how much...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: No, not what you didn't real...

SENATOR WITEK: ...they could be manipulated. That's obvious.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...not what you didn't realize. You voted for them because you thought there should be rules and they should be followed. Is that correct?

SENATOR WITEK: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Now, do you think what I'm doing is in violation of the rules?

SENATOR WITEK: No.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. I'm the only one on the floor who voted against the rules and yet I'm complying with the rules and I get condemned by one who voted for the rules because I follow the rules that I voted against. And somebody who voted for those rules is mad because I'm following the rules that she voted for. That is the mind-set that prevents this amendment from being considered. I would like to ask Senator Hall a question because now he's through with his discussion and he hasn't even been in on the discussion but I'm going to ask him this question.

SENATOR HALL: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Hall, do you think before an abortion can be considered to have occurred the pregnancy must have been terminated prematurely?

SENATOR HALL: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: My...the amendment is to correct the law. With the definition that they have now, they struck the requirement that the fetus be prematurely expelled so, as a result, the only thing that has to be done for there to be an abortion now is to use a substance, give a substance to a pregnant woman with the intent to terminate the pregnancy, but
